

EBMT PSY DAY 2025 (Florence, Italy) - CALL FOR SPEAKERS!

Dear all

We are writing to you as members of the organising committee for the PSY DAY at next year's annual meeting of the European Society for Blood and Marrow Transplantation (EBMT) to be held in Florence, Italy between 30th March – 2nd April 2025.

The annual conference of the EBMT has included a PSY DAY with a focus on psychological issues within patients treated with hematopoietic cell transplant (HSCT) or other cellular therapies such as Chimeric Antigen Receptor-T (CAR-T) cell therapy for the past 8 years.

We are inviting practitioners or researchers with interest in psychology or supportive care within the field of HSCT / Cellular Therapies to submit a short abstract to be considered for an oral presentation at the next year's PSY DAY.

DEADLINE TO SUBMIT ABSTRACTS: 30TH SEPTEMBER 2024

INFORMATION REQUIRED FOR SUBMISSION

The following information will be required if you wish to submit an abstract

- A working title of your presentation
- A brief summary (max 250 words) of the planned content of the presentation. This does not need to be in the format of a research publication.
- Your name, email address, place of work (including country where you are based)

AREAS/ TOPICS OF INTEREST

- Research focusing on survivorship, quality of life and supportive care interventions
- Individual or group based clinical / psychological interventions with patients/ caregivers
- Theoretical or ethical issues in the psychosocial care of patients/ caregivers (including related donors)
- Multidisciplinary work within a transplant/ cellular therapy setting with a psychological focus

Our aim is for the PSY DAY to be a forum for exchanging innovative ideas about patient care and provoke thoughtful discussions that have a psychosocial focus. To that end, we warmly welcome submissions of both formal published/ unpublished research AND/OR clinical issues related to psychology, psychotherapy, or survivorship within BMT or CAR-T.

To enable the PSY DAY to be of interest to a wide audience at the conference, those who are interested in the topics listed above are welcome to submit an abstract, regardless of their background, training or area of clinical work.

LOGISTICAL INFORMATION: DATES, ACCOMMODATION AND TRAVEL

DEADLINE TO SUBMIT ABSTRACTS: 30TH SEPTEMBER 2024
